Nathaniel Seeley - Nathaniel Freeman Seeley & Anson Seeley are buried there.

In some records this Nathaniel Seeley 7 has been confused with Nathaniel 6 (Benj. 5 John 4 Benj. 3) as it will be noted that this Nathaniel 7 was a resident of Fairfield,Conn. and it was here Jabez Wheeler's Company (Rev.War) was made up & Lieut.Col. Bimon was a Fairfield Man.

Nathaniel 6 (Benj. 5) was of New Milford and he would probably have enlisted in Danbury or vicinity. I779 would have gone to defense of Danbury & Ridgefield when battles were fought in alarms.

Julia Leonard, born 10 July 1783, West Springfield, Mass.
died 20 Sept. 1850, Penn Yan, N. Y.

Frederick Augustus Whittlesey (1827 Rochester --1905 Rochester, N.Y.)

(1.) Their daughter, Alice Whittlesey (1861 Rochester -- still living 1892)
married 1892 Samuel Campbell McKown

Mrs. Alice Whittlesey McKown (1), was a little more than four years of age, when her mother (2) died. She (1) lived with her grandmother (3) until her grandmother (3) died (1887).

Mrs. McKown says: Her grandmother's father, Isaac Seelye, was only married once and to Julia Leonard, (his only wife). The had three children, viz.

I. Harriet (the elder of Julia, by several years) married, (after Julia) to William Oliver. They moved from Otsego County, to Penn Yan, N.Y. (she never heard of Harriet having a "middle name".

II. Julia Elizabeth, (2) very beautiful young woman, married before her elder sister, (Harriet)

III. William, died when about fifteen years of age. He was the "idol of the family". His sisters each named their first child for him, viz. William Seelye Little and William Seelye Oliver

She remembers her grandmother (3) often speaking of her brother (William) and sister (Harriet) as well as of mother (Julia Leonard Seelye, wife of Isaac.

Mrs. McKown has four small bound volumes "The Adventure" (a weekly magazine) 1752-1750 (sic). published in London, England. Her grandmother (3) told her they belonged to "Aunt Theoda". (wife of a brother of Isaac Seelye).

Note: The descendants of Nathan kept to the spelling "Seelye" which was adopted by him through a sign painter's mistake.
Nathan Seeley established a hat factory in Bethel,Conn.
The sign he ordered painted for this factory came to him with name spelled "Seelye." Rather than pay for a new sign,he adopted the sign's spelling.
There after his family and descendats clung to spelling of " Seelye."

Remarks and addresses:

Re the children of Uri (8) and Abbey Turney Seeley:

Anna Seeley Willard had a son Uri who did not live to maturity.

Parthena Seeley Keith (9) had a son Uri (10) who lived and married and had children

Boudinot Seeley (9) had a son Uri (10) who lived, married and had a daughter.

Re the grandchildren of Uri and Abbey Seeley, as far as I know those living are:

Anna Seeley Bernard, widow, 415 So. East 35th Avenue, Portland, Oregon.

Edward Seeley, address unknown to me, he married and has children living, last I knew.

Orville W. Seeley, married, several children, daughter Isabel is a D.A.R.

These are children of Boudinot, address Austinburg, Ohio

Winnie Gould McBride, daughter of Lavinia, a graduate of Vassar College, has a fine mind and wonderful memory, address 1221 Willard Street, Ann Arbor, Mich. the last I knew, —Mary Seeley may know a better one and I asked her to send it to you.

I am the last one living of my family, and my address is as stated. The property in Austinburg, Ohio, has been in the family since around, 1847, continuously and also the Post Office address during that time, my husband has added to the land and we have 170 acres there of which I may say it is a source of trouble and anxiety and of no income, but it is the old home, and we have a fine wood lot to look at some distance to the east. We had a home and residence for thirty years in Chicago, corner Dearborn and Elm Street, north side, but we always took the children to Ohio summers.
